THE DIRT AND THE STARS

MARY CHAPIN CARPENTER

"a major star...consistent, beautiful work"

6 NEW ALBUMS YOU SHOULD LISTEN TO NOW
Pitchfork

"true emotional complexity"

"Carpenter was able to erase all boundaries between singer and song; she entered their experiences nakedly, bravely, and completely, making this one of her standout albums."

"soft folk-rock filled with lush keyboards and layered guitars...Mary Chapin Carpenter's songs speak to all of us"

"yet another reminder of the Grammy-winning artist's incomparable talent"

"Mary Chapin Carpenter will put you together again."
folk radio

"pristine performances that mirror the pensive intimacy of her mature, weathered but still hopeful songs"

The New York Times

"her songs enfold us in their warmth, their candor, their understated beauty, and their soulfulness"
NO DEPRESSION

"melodically soothing, but lyrically evocative"

"Carpenter has long been a class act and it is great to have her back in our lives."

"a personal and exploratory new batch of songs"

"a musical force"

HoustonPress

"a fully-realized artistic vision"
